HISTORY OF THE HOSE COMPANY 22 FIREHOUSE

THE FIREHOUSE HAS BEEN STANDING ON STUTSON STREET SINCE 1916, AND WAS CONSIDERED THE CROWN JEWEL OF CHARLOTTE, WITH ITS INTRICATE FACADE AND GRAND ARCHITECTURE. JUST DOWN THE UNPAVED ROAD WOULD EVENTUALLY BE THE STUTSON STREET BRIDGE, BUILT A YEAR LATER IN 1917. HOSE COMPANY NO. 22 OPERATED HERE UNTIL 1962, EVENTUALLY MOVING OUT TO A MORE MODERN FACILITY, LEAVING THE BUILDING VACANT FOR 47 YEARS. A FIRE BROKE OUT IN THE EMPTY BUILDING, SEVERELY DAMAGING THE FLOORS, CEILING AND ROOF IN FRONT OF THE BUILDING. YOU COULD ACTUALLY STAND INSIDE THE FRONT DOOR AND LOOK UP AT THE STARS. EVIDENCE OF THIS CAN STILL BE SEEN ON SOME SCORCHED BRICKS ON THE SECOND FLOOR. THE BUILDING WAS THEN BOARDED UP AND THE PIGEONS TOOK OVER.

FAST FORWARD TO NOVEMBER 2007, WHEN A LOCAL CONTRACTOR PURCHASED THE FIREHOUSE AND CONVERTED IT INTO THE RESTAURANT IT IS TODAY. OVER A TWO-YEAR PERIOD IT WAS GUTTED, EVERY WINDOW AND DOOR REPLACED, TIN CEILINGS ADDED AND FLOORS REPAIRED AND REFINISHED, ALL WHILE PAYING ATTENTION TO THE TINIEST DETAILS. A NEW SLATE ROOF AND COPPER GUTTERS WERE ADDED, THE FIRE POLES REPLACED, EVEN THE WROUGHT IRON BALCONY OUT FRONT HAS BEEN METICULOUSLY REPLICATED. ALL RESTORATIONS WERE DONE BASED OFF OLD PHOTOS OF THE BUILDING.

AN OUTREACH TO THE COMMUNITY HAS YIELDED SOME INCREDIBLE DONATIONS OF HISTORICAL PHOTOS AND MEMORABILIA ON DISPLAY. SO HERE'S TRIBUTE TO THE MEN WHO SERVED HERE, THE PEOPLE THEY PROTECTED, AND CHARLOTTE . . . A COMMUNITY RICH IN HISTORY.
